Early this morning 48 people were injured, one seriously, when a coach overturned in Cornwall. An RAF helicopter was deployed to the scene of the crash, which took place when the coach was returning from Mousehole, near Penzance. A police spokesman said the 'extremely icy' conditions may have played a part in the incident. Across the UK some major routes were still affected by icy conditions yesterday.

The government has decided to cut subsidies to householders installing roof top solar panels by 65%. Greenpeace said the government was moving in the wrong direction with the solar cuts. "In just one month, one nuclear plant at Hinkley would swallow up four years' worth of subsidies for the whole solar sector. Why are ministers signing a blank cheque for expensive, outdated nuclear power?"

Although the number of people killed by tuberculosis has almost halved over the past 25 years, 1.5 million people died from it in 2018. The worldwide total of new TB cases last year – 9.6 million – was also higher than in previous years, a fact the WHO attributes to increased and improved national data. Despite the growth in TB cases, the report says the global fight against the infectious disease is paying off.
