ARTICLE 2 - ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Irrespective of their age and citizenship, all candidates may apply to participate in the competitive examination for admission granted that they hold one of the following:

- "laurea magistrale" or "laurea specialistica" [Italian academic degree equivalent to a Master's Degree] or "laurea" attained pursuant to the university degree system applicable before Italian Ministerial Decree No. 509 of 3 November 1999, came into force, as amended with Italian Ministerial Decree No. 270 of 22 October 2004, as well as second-level degrees equivalent to the above;
- an academic degree attained abroad, granted that it is comparable in terms of duration, level and, where possible, in terms of branch of learning, to the Italian degree allows admission to the Doctorate program, and recognized as eligible for the participation in the competitive examination only, pursuant to Article 3 below.

For each Research Doctorate program, the forms attached hereto specify the type of academic degree required to participate in the competitive examination and any other additional requirements.

Candidates that already hold a research doctoral degree may be admitted to attend, granted that the selection tests are sat and passed, another research doctorate program without any scholarship coverage.

In compliance with the terms set down in Article 5 below, graduands may also apply for admission, granted that they actually graduate and attain the degree required for admission no later than 31 October 2019, under penalty of exclusion. The candidates that have been admitted as graduands shall communicate no later than 4 November 2019, to the "UO Formazione Post Lauream" [PhD Office] via e-mail to the following address dottorati@unipr.it, the date, the final mark achieved and the University that issued the relevant academic degree, by sending a self-certification, dated and hand-signed, with a copy of a valid document.

ARTICLE 3 – ACADEMIC DEGREE ATTAINED ABROAD

The eligibility of foreign academic degrees shall be verified by the Examination Board in charge of admission, in compliance with the applicable legislation in Italy and in the Country where the academic degree has been issued, as well as in compliance with any international agreements or treaties concerning the recognition of educational degrees for higher education.

The admission application that is filled in online shall entail an implicit request to assess the eligibility of the academic degree attained abroad. To this end, candidates must submit the following documents to their application:

- a) a certificate of their academic degree listing the exams sat and passed with the relevant mark, specifying the minimum and maximum vote provided for in the educational system of your country. EU citizens may use a statutory declaration in lieu of the certificate, pursuant to Italian Presidential Decree No. 445/2000 as amended;
- b) translation into English of the certificate as per item a), signed by the candidate under his/her responsibility, only where this document is not originally in English;
- c) any other documents as useful to assess the academic degree eligibility (Diploma Supplement, etc.)

a certificate of academic qualification with the list of the examinations and the relative voting, specifying the minimum and maximum vote provided for in the educational system of your country

In case they win the competitive examination, candidates holding an academic degree attained abroad shall be admitted conditionally and shall hand in the "dichiarazione di valore in loco del titolo posseduto" [declaration of local value of the degree held] and the certificate of such degree setting forth the exams and marks, translated and certified by the Italian diplomatic representation or consulate in the Country where the institution that issued the degree is based. The declaration of value shall certify that the held degree is valid in the Country where it was attained for admission to an academic program similar to a Research Doctorate. If the above "dichiarazione di valore in loco" is not available at the time of matriculation, a document shall be provided giving evidence that the application for its issue has been submitted to the competent diplomatic representation and the "dichiarazione di valore" shall be turned in as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 4 – QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates shall submit the following mandatory documentation for admission to all Research Doctorate Programs dealt with in this announcement:

- curriculum vitae et studiorum (preferably in European format and including a brief description of the topics of the degree thesis. It can also be written in English);
- an abstract of the second cycle Master's degree thesis. Undergraduates applicants may submit the draft of the thesis approved by their supervisor (Abstract/draft: approximately 10,000 characters including spaces);
- Documents attesting that the applicant holds both the necessary first and second level degrees. Please, note that such documents must provide the following information
 - university that has awarded the degree
 - type of degree awarded, whether second level master degree/single cycle' second-level degrees/pre-reform degree
 - denomination of the degree awarded
 - "Classe di Laurea" (only for degree awarded in Italy)
 - date in which the degree has been awarded
 - final mark
 - academic transcript of records, including the full list of the exams taken and the related marks.

As to the supporting documents referred to in previous point aimed at attesting that the applicant holds both the first and second level master's degrees required, please note that:

- applicants granted of the above academic degrees by Italian Universities must submit a self-certification, duly filled and signed, attesting the completion of their studies (both the first and second level master' degree);
- applicants awarded by the above academic degrees by other foreign Universities must submit a certificate attesting the completion of their studies (i.e. first and second level master' degree), and the transcript of records. The latter must include the full list of the exams taken and the related marks. In case of documents drawn up in languages other than Italian or English, the official translation in Italian/English of both the documents is required. Only official translations issued by the University which has awarded the degree or by other competent authorities in the State in which the title has been awarded shall be accepted.

Applicants holding a degree awarded in the other EU Member States can submit a self-certification (see previous point) or the Diploma Supplement as an alternative to the certificate.

Undergraduate applicants, lacking the academic requirements set by art. 2 at the time of the expiry of the present Call, may replace the certification relating to the second level master's degree referred to in previous point with the transcript of records. The latter must include the full list of the exams taken and the related marks. Please, note that the transcript of record must further include the Weighted Average Mark (WAM). The latter can be estimated as follow:

For each completed unit of study:

- multiply the mark obtained by the number of credits points (please, note that "30 with honours" must be considered as 30);
- adding all the amounts received;
- divide the result by the total of the credit points.

Undergraduate applicants enrolled at non-Italian Universities are not required to indicate WAM.

To <http://www.unipr.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-di-ricerca> page applicants may download a self-certification fac-simile to be used in the case the academic qualifications held has been awarded by an Italian public university.

In circumstances where following an assessment of the documents submitted the academic qualification held does not meet the requirements set by art. 2 of the present Call or the statements made are untrue; the University is entitled to issue a Rectoral Decree excluding the applicant by the selection procedure or by the PhD Programme. Such an exclusion can be established at any point during the selection procedure, even after the enrollment has been completed.

The forms attached hereto also specify other optional documents as provided for by each Research Doctorate program, of which a copy shall be attached to the application online for assessment purposes. All titles written in a language other than Italian will have to be translated into English, otherwise they will not be evaluated.

All documentation shall be submitted in accordance with Article 5 below.

Applications that are incomplete, irregular or not submitted in the manner and within the terms specified in this article will not be accepted.

In any case, additions to the documentation attached to the application will not be admitted after the deadline of the call, with the exception of those requested by the University.

Candidates intending to participate in the competitive examination for more than one doctorate programs shall submit more than one application, attaching the required documentation to each one of them.

In case the attached forms require research topics for the chosen Doctorate program, candidates shall set forth the specific topic chosen in their application for admission in Annex A.

Candidates are invited to complete the application to participate in the competitive examinations well before the set deadline.

It is the candidates' responsibility to verify the correct conclusion of the procedure and the correct loading of all the documents. No claims will be accepted for any malfunctions of the computer system due to excessive load in proximity to the deadline.

ARTICLE 6 – RESERVED POSITIONS

As regards doctorate programs for which reserved positions are provided, candidates that graduated from foreign Universities or candidates holding scholarships funded by foreign States, candidates holding scholarships within specific international mobility programs and candidates that are the recipients of EU or international collaboration programs may compete for the positions reserved to the same, for which specific admission procedures may be set.

Any reserved positions are stated in the attached forms referring to the single doctorate programs, which shall be an integral part of this announcement.

Reserved positions may be provided to employees of companies having agreements in place for “Industrial Doctorate Programs.

The candidates intending to compete for the above reserved positions must attach additional documents to their application for participation in the competitive examination (ANNEX A), specifically:

- Candidates holding a foreign academic degree: in addition to the other documents as listed in the Form for the specific Doctorate Program, they shall attach a certificate of the foreign academic degree setting forth the exams sat and passed and the relevant marks and translated into Italian or English. This shall automatically entail that the candidates meeting the requirements will compete for the relevant reserved positions, where provided.
- Candidates holding scholarships funded by foreign States: in addition to the documents listed in the Form for the specific doctorate program, they shall attach a certificate stating that they are the holders of the scholarship granted.
- Candidates under specific international mobility programs: to the documents listed in the Form for the specific doctorate program, they shall attach a certificate stating the title of the scholarship provided as part of a specific international mobility program.
- Candidates that are employees of companies having agreements for “Industrial Doctorate programs”: in addition to the documents listed in the Form of the relevant doctorate program, they shall attach documents giving evidence of their being employees of the company. This shall automatically entail that the candidates meeting the requirements will compete for the relevant reserved positions, where provided.
- Candidates holding Research Grant: in addition to the documents listed in the Form of the relevant doctorate program, they shall attach a self-certification stating that they hold the research fellow position, its duration and the granting body, or a document stating the award of the same position. This shall automatically entail that the candidates meeting the requirements will compete also for the relevant reserved positions, where provided. In the event that it is not possible to present a declaration certifying the title of the grant, as the comparative evaluation procedure has not yet been completed on the closing date of this call, candidates will be admitted subject to presentation of said documentation course or before 31.10.2019.

For reserved positions, the examination Board shall prepare a separate short-list in accordance with the type of reserved positions.

The positions that are reserved to holders of scholarships funded by foreign States or pertaining to specific international mobility programs, or reserved to research fellows or employees of companies having industrial doctorate agreements, or reserved for high training and research internship contracts and that have remained vacant shall not be awarded to other candidates. Should there be no winning candidates, any vacancies reserved for graduates from foreign universities will be added to the general ranking of each Research doctorate course.

ARTICLE 7 - ADMISSION EXAMINATION

Admission shall be based on a competitive examination consisting in assessment of qualifications and, possibly, of tests. In addition to the assessment of qualifications and/or the research project, the procedures for the comparative assessment, aimed at verifying the candidates' abilities and skills for scientific research may consist in a written exam, an oral exam open to the public, in a practical exam and/or test, or in a combination of the above chosen by the Doctorate Program Board.

The selection procedures and the assessment criteria for the admission to the PhD Programmes are described in the PhD Programme Tables in attachment, which form an integral part of the present Call for applications. Such Tables are also available in the webpage listing the PhD Programme available on the website <http://www.unipr.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-di-ricerca>

The publication on the web of the above schedule shall amount to formal notification for all purposes convening candidates for the exams, if any. Therefore, candidates shall present themselves, with no notice or communication whatsoever required regarding admission exams, at the examination venue, on the day and at the time set forth in the above forms, with an identity document that has a photograph of the holder, is valid and has been issued by a State Body, under penalty of exclusion.

Only and exclusively where so provided in the Form relating to the chosen doctorate program, the exam may be held in a language other than Italian and with the use of IT tools and electronic modes as suitable to verify the candidates' identity.

The possible oral examination in public.

The Examination Board may award a total of 120 points. The breakdown of points of the single exams, including the minimum requirement to be admitted to written or oral test, is set forth in the forms relating to the single doctorate programs.

To qualify a total score not lower than 70 points shall be required. The final score shall be the sum of the points obtained in the assessment of qualifications and in the single exams.

In the case of scholarship linked to specific topics, during the written or oral exam, the candidates will have the possibility to show their interest for one or more scholarships linked to specific topics. The Examination Board will express a suitability assessment for the allocation of the scholarship linked to specific topics, taking into account the specific skills, experiences and aptitudes of the candidates.

Candidates will be able to view the results of the single exams and the outcome of the final long-listing by accessing the reserved web page of online students' office services from the University website <https://unipr.esse3.cineca.it/Home.do>. The results of the evaluation of the qualifications will be displayed a few days before the date scheduled for the written / oral exam.

Specific provisions for candidates residing abroad: candidates residing or temporarily abroad for study or work, only and exclusively where so stated in the form relating to the chosen doctorate program, may sit the oral exam, if any, remotely, via web teleconference, both audio and video (e.g.: Skype).

With regard to Doctorate Programs providing the possibility to sit the interview also via videoconference or other technology allowing remote viewing of the participants in the interview, candidate resident abroad or temporarily abroad for work or study and intend to use such operating mode shall submit the relevant request filling in the "Form for videoconference request", and attach it to the online application for admission, along with a copy of a valid identity document.

The form shall state, under penalty of the candidate's exclusion, the chosen platform (Skype or a similar one) and the user's address to be used by the Board to make the video call. Candidates shall be available at their personal address, as previously communicated, on the day set for the oral exam, in accordance with the schedule included in the Form relating to the relevant Doctorate program. The Examination Board may decide to agree with the candidate on a precise time for the beginning of the interview.

For identification purposes and under penalty of exclusion from the selection procedure, each candidate shall identify him/herself, before the interview begins, by showing the same identity document a copy of which has been attached to the application for participation in the competitive examination.

In the event a candidate fails to communicate his/her personal address, fails to connect, or is not available on the day and at the time as agreed, or fails to show a valid identity document, pursuant to the previous paragraph, all these shall be grounds to exclude such candidate from the selection procedure. These grounds for exclusion shall not apply if the candidate, with a valid identity document, presents him/herself on the day set for the interview in order to sit the oral exam “in person”.

The acceptance of any requests to take the oral exam at a distance received after the expiry of the competition will be judged discretionally by the Examination Board, taking into account the particular needs expressed by the candidate who may go to preclude the possibility of taking the oral examination in attendance.

The University of Parma shall not be responsible for any technical causes which prevent the oral interview from being carried out regularly.

After the exams, the Examination Board shall prepare the general short-list based on the scores obtained by the candidates in the qualification assessment and in any single exams.

ARTICLE 8 – EXAMINATION BOARD

Examination Boards shall be appointed by the Rector and composed in accordance with Article 5 of the Regulation concerning Research Doctorate degrees of the University of Parma.

The composition of the single Boards shall be published, before the expiry of the notice, on the University website: <http://www.unipr.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-di-ricerca>.

The Examination Boards shall not send any personal communication to candidates regarding the competitive exams: the candidates shall be responsible for obtaining information on the same in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 7 of this announcement.

ARTICLE 9 - ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAMS (Final short-lists)

Successful applicants will be admitted to the PhD programme, after the approval of selection deeds, in line with the ranking list until all positions available are covered, without prejudice to the specific procedures for the awarding of the positions set out in Arts. 6 and 7 of this call, concerning reserved positions and scholarships dedicated to specific research topics.

Candidates will be able to check whether they have qualified for admission to the chosen Doctorate Program, in the reserved dedicated website area, under the item admission tests, by logging in with the same procedures used to register for the competitive examination on the University website <https://unipr.esse3.cineca.it/Home.do>.

The beneficiaries of scholarships awarded by European and international institutions or other forms of financial support, on the basis of specific projects in which the University of Parma is a partner, may be admitted to the doctorate courses, after evaluation of the access requirements, provided they are assigned to a grant or other form of financial support won through participation in the selection procedures described in the regulation of each program.

The publication of the short-list on the website shall be the only official publications of the outcomes of the competitive examination and, therefore, no personal notifications shall be sent to the winning candidates.

In case a candidate ranks in a winning position in more than one short-list, he/she shall opt for only one Doctorate Program, concomitantly notifying his/her waiver of the other programs.

The choice of the PhD program, carried out at the time of registration is final and you can not change it in any way.

The candidates that rank as winners in the final short-list, who are not over 29 years of age, may be selected in cooperation with any interested companies and based on each candidate's specific skills, for a "high training and research internship contract" to cover any vacancies, where any are set forth in the forms attached hereto.

Postgraduate students enrolled in a Medical Specialty School at the University of Parma who win the competitive examination for admission to a doctorate program held at the same University may be allowed to attend jointly both programs during the last year of the Medical Specialty School, granted that they are in the last year of the Specialty School at the time of matriculation in the doctorate program, in compliance with the deadlines set down in Article 10 below.

Joint attendance shall be allowed where compatible with the activities and commitment required by the same School, and such compatibility shall be stated by the authorization issued by the School Board.

The Doctorate Program Board shall resolve on any request for a reduction in the doctorate program, after assessing the research activities already carried out during the postgraduate medical specialty program as certified by the postgraduate medical specialty school, and may allow enrolment in the second year of the doctorate program.

In the year of joint attendance, the postgraduate student may not receive the doctorate program scholarship.

ARTICLE 10 – ACCEPTANCE OF THE POSITION AND MATRICULATION

ARTICLE 11 - SCHOLARSHIPS

The scholarships will be assigned, during the planning of the activities of the first year of the course, by the Academic Board according to the order in the final ranking list, taking into account the indications contained in the PhD programme tables, regarding reserved positions, positions with scholarships linked to specific topics and the judgments of suitability expressed by the Examination Boards during the competition.

The number of scholarship may be increased up to the maximum number of available places indicated in each course description sheet a result of further funding from public and private entities interesting to supporting the research activities, even after the publication of this announcement, however, within the deadline for submitting applications for admission.

The potential increased in the number of scholarships will be noted on the description sheets of each courses, published on the web site, without effecting the application deadline as indicated in art. 5 of this announcement.

The increase in the number of scholarship may determine an increase in the overall number of places available for that course.

Candidates who are assigned scholarships whit a predetermined research activity will bound to carry out that activity.

Scholarships decaded to specific research topics are those financed under certain programs, projects or agreements with external bodies that obligatorily require the activity to be carried out on a specific research topic (indicated in the PhD programme tables) and which bind the beneficiary to conduct this specific research. Due to their particular nature, the scholarships dedicated to specific research topics can not be assigned on the basis of the general merit ranking, but require an additional specific assessment.

The Examination Board, possibly supplemented by an expert member referred to in the previous art. 5, will express a suitability assessment for the assignment of the scholarship linked to specific topics, taking into consideration the specific competences, experiences and aptitudes of the candidates, as well as the profile sought, possibly indicated in the PhD programme tables.

In the modalities provided for by the PhD programme tables, each candidate can express to the Examination Boars his or her interest in the assignment of one or more scholarships with a fixed subject. This expression of interest is not binding for the purpose of assigning the suitability assessment.

All candidates who apply for a specific PhD course take part in the selection for general positions.

For candidates with the same ranking, the assessment of their income situation pursuant to the Decree issued by the Italian Prime Minister on 9 April 2001 and published in the Italian Official Journal issued No.172 of 26 July 2001.

The yearly gross amount of the scholarship is € 15.343,28, as defined by the Ministerial Decree n. 40 of the 25.01.2018. Social-security contributions are deducted monthly from the gross scholarship by the University on behalf of the PhD candidates. Scholarships are paid to PhD candidates on a monthly basis, in arrears.

The scholarships are subject to the payment of the INPS social security contribution (Gestione separata INPS) according to the relevant legislation into force. Such a contribution is paid as follow: two-thirds to be paid by the University and one-third to be paid by the scholarship holder. PhD candidates enjoy the related rights and safeguards.

In tax terms, the provisions of Article 4 of Italian Law No. 476 of 13 August 1984 apply to scholarships for attendance of doctorate programs.

The scholarship shall not add to other research grants or other scholarships awarded on whatsoever ground, except for those awarded by Italian or foreign bodies and intended to integrate, with stays abroad, the training or research activities of the Doctoral Student.

The beneficiaries of research grants who are awarded scholarships as part of a PhD program must irrevocably renounce the grant or scholarship by the start date of the course on 01.11.2019 by promptly contacting their administration.

Anyone who has already received a scholarship for a PhD course, even partially, cannot apply for a second time.

ARTICLE 12 - TUITION FEES

It is envisaged the total exemption from the payment of fees or grants to the University for the PhD students who have a scholarship and other forms of equivalent support under the D.M. 45/2013.

It is also envisaged, pursuant to Law 11 December 2016, no. 232, paragraph 262, the total exemption from paying taxes or grants to the University for PhD students who are not scholarship beneficiaries.
